

Luis Martín
Partner

Head of the Corporate Restructuring Dept.

Luis.martin@abencys.com

Work experience

- Career developed in industrial and service companies, specializing in strategic consulting in the areas of:
 - Restructuring and implementation of viability plans for national and multinational companies.
 - Expert reports in judicial, arbitration and mediation proceedings with respect to economic-financial evidence.
- 1988-1989: Director of the Restructuring Department at BLR Consultores.
- 1990-2003: Partner at CMC, a Spanish firm specializing in corporate restructuring and mergers and acquisitions.
- 2003-2005: Corporate Restructuring Director at Ernst & Young undertaking activities in the Spanish market cooperating at the international level.
- 2005-2011: Partner in the Restructuring Department of Roca Junyent.
- 2011-2013: Partner in the Restructuring Department of DLA Piper, Spain.

Education and Qualifications

- Degree in Economic and Business Sciences from the Complutense University of Madrid (UCM) and San Pablo CEU University.
- Law degree from the Europea University of Madrid (UEM).
- Post-graduate courses in Mergers and Acquisitions at the IE and IESE Business Schools.
- Negotiation Techniques Program at Harvard University.
- Member of the Economists Association of REFOR (Forensic Economists Register), INSOL and TMA.
- Member of ICAM.
- Executive Harvard Leadership Program at Harvard Business School.
- Leadership course at Cambridge University.

Teaching activities

- Member of the teaching staff of FIDE (Law and Company Research Foundation) for the training of Bankruptcy Receivers.
- Lecturer at international restructuring forums.